Southern Pulp Industry & Timber Prices: 1997-2017 68
By Harrison Hood, Tom Harris, & Sara Baldwin, TimberMart-South

Comparisons of change in the southern pulp industry over 20 years include southern pulp capacity, wood inventory levels, pulp mill ownership, and pulpwood stumpage prices. In spite of big changes over the past two decades, the overall demand for pulpwood has not changed much. Bioenergy facilities essentially filled some of the holes in the market created by lost pulp/paper capacity.

Farm Credit: A History of Commitment to Agriculture 79
By Corey Cottle, Director of Marketing, AgGeorgia Farm Credit

Answers to common questions about the Farm Credit system include the origins of the system; size of membership and magnitude of loan volume; diversity of the loan portfolio; as well as how Farm Credit differs from banks and other lenders. Farm Credit serves small and large operations from dozens of locations across the South.
